Volume 29, Issue 11

When the bird, proud of its plumage, grows up among the plants, when its life is renewed, young, full of grace, then, swift in limb, from the dust it gathers its body, the remnant of the old world before. Artfully it escapes the stress of the fire; and from the ashes, the leavings of that spoils of death, it makes its own home once more. The Sacred Stone of the fire, clutches it with its claws and joyously seeks again its home-land, sunny haunts happy native country. All shall be made anew, its life and feathery dress, as it was in the beginning, when first victorious noble placed it in the noble plain. It brings there its own bones, the ashes too, which the surge of fire embraced before the funeral pile. Then the valiant bird buries the bones and ashes all together in that water-land. The sign of the sun is renewed for him, when the light of the sky, brightest of jewels, the best of noble stars, shines up from the east over the sea. - It is not sluggish nor slothful, dull nor torpid as some birds who wing their way slowly through the air, but it is speedy and swift and very alert, fair and winsome, and gloriously marked. - The people behold in wonder at how faithful its people are.

Letter from Their Excellencies

Unto the populace of Sacred Stone do Marc and Alianor send warm thoughts and greetings.

War of the Wings has come and gone, and what a fabulous event it was. We wish to thank Meisterin Gisela and the entire War of the Wings staff for their tireless effort, hard work and dedication to making this event everything that the Kingdom has come to expect, year after year. We ask that each of you please take the time to seek out these individuals and thank them for what they do, in some cases year after year, to pull this event together. We also wished to give our personal thanks to Lady Audrey for not only running camp but also taking on the, once again, position of Sanitation Engineer. Making sure that everything was clean and well stocked. What no one realizes is that she did all of this while being incredibly ill.. Lady Audrey displays the type of rock hard foundation that Sacred Stone was built and relies on.

With the passing of WoW comes the slowdown of the SCA event season. We are hoping to see more of the Canton take part in having practices as well as A&S days. If you are planning any such sessions, if you would please send us a message with times, places and content, we hope to make it out to some of them, in the upcoming months.

November will see us travelling to Nottinghill Coill, as the next heirs of this fantastic Kingdom are chosen. We hope to see many of you at Crown Tournament and welcome the next in line to rule Atlantia.

On the heels of Crown will find us in Winston Salem for In a Phoenix Eye. We have been hearing so much about all of the wonderful competitions planned, and cannot wait to see what everyone has been working so hard on.

As a reminder, PLEASE.. If you have any event or business (be it local or Baronial) announcements to be made, they MUST be listed on the Baronial email server. We know that many individuals take advantage of the Social Media outlets, but it is neither considered an official or reliable method of passing such information on (There are still quite a number of people who are not on Facebook, but do pay attention to email for their information).. Your help in making sure that we adhere to the policies and procedures set forth by Society, Kingdom and Barony are most appreciated.

Lastly, we wished to take this opportunity to wish everyone a Happy Thanksgiving. We will certainly be counting the wonderful people of this Barony amongst our blessings. It is an honor and a joy to live amongst so fine people.

We remain,
Marc and Alianor

Did You Know? Release Forms

Last month I wrote about one of three permissions required by Society to allow me to publish your art, your likeness, and your photographs. The three permissions were Creative Work Copyright Assignment/Grant of Use Form (for use of your articles, poems, stories, songs, and original art), SCA Model Release Form (for subjects whose faces are recognizable in the photo), and SCA Photography Grant of Use Form (for pictures you take). Our Kingdom Chronicler's page includes a tab called release forms. Here you can find descriptions and links to each of the forms. There is also clarification for pictures used of members who have died. Please review if you or your Canton have memorial pages on your webpages. You can access that information here: <http://chronicler.atlantia.sca.org/Releases.html>

How-to: Naalbinding

Submitted by Lady Annice Argent

Hello everyone! Winter is coming and cold weather is starting to creep up on us again. What better way to warm up in these upcoming cold and dark months than by working with yarn? I would like to introduce you to the warm woolly world of naalbinding.

The following video shows one of naalbinding's most basic stitches, the Oslo stitch:
<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=EcuUqeKQZ5Q>

This stitch is pretty easy to pick up. Once you get the hang of it, you can make mittens, socks, cowls, and any number of warm accessories. All you need is a large eye, blunt-tipped needle and some nice thick yarn. Wool, alapaca, or any other feltable kind of yarn works best as naalbinding is done with short lengths of yarn. It is easiest to use a spit-splice to felt a new length of yarn to the old, but if you have a wool allergy or would prefer to use a non-animal fiber, you can use different joining methods. When you would do a spit-splice, you could do a Russian Join (video example here: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=9MXT2mrR894>), or you could drop the old length and repeat the previous stitch with a new length of yarn to join (you would essentially be doing the same stitch twice, once in the old yarn and again in the new yarn. This would mean a lot of ends to sew in once you finish your piece, but if you don't mind, go right ahead!

If you have any questions about naalbinding, knitting, or yarn in general, please email me at jrargent@uncg.edu or catch me at the Middlegate A&S Night on Tuesdays at 6pm at Geeksboro Coffeehouse.

Happy crafting!
-Argent

Quality of Service

Submitted by Master Andreas de Caunteton, OP

I was awed by the amount and quality of service displayed by the Baronial populace at War of the Wings. We have amazing people that made things happen above and beyond expectations. Some of the busiest were not Peers and took on a multitude of tasks, many of which were behind the scenes chores that must be done, including those that most do not want to do. I ask of all that witnessed and or benefited from those persons' endeavors to take the time to write of the experience in missives of recommendation to our Baronage and Crown for recognition consideration.

I next ask that all consider becoming more involved in your Canton and Baronial operations by seeking out opportunities to serve as Officers in a primary role or as a Deputy. Seneschals, Exchequers, Youth Chancellors and Chatelaines are extremely important. Heralds, Chroniclers, Arts & Sciences Ministers all make a significant difference. The fighting community needs Marshals in all disciplines for Adult and Youth activities, and Ministers of the List. There is something available within your interests, and training programs to help you gain experience while building knowledge skills. Remember that events and or specific activities cannot happen without certain positions and having backups is essential when real life, illness or emergencies happen.

Many hands make for light work and greater fun for all. Learn, grow, and give the gift of service to your fellow Scadians!

Canton Reports (summarized from Oct meeting)

Charlesbury Crossing (Giavonna)

Nothing new

Middlegate – Lord Simone da Venezia

Expect to see more stuff about Bylina of the Stone

Aire Faucon – Lady Prudence the Curious

We now have a Chatelaine, milady L'al Jan bint Khalil.

Weekly A&S continues. This month included a bardic and potluck last week of September and a newcomer vocabulary night first week of October.

Crois Brigitte – Lord Thomas of Salem

- 1) Crois Brigitte has a new MoAS. It is Lady Jenna Fairhaven. She announced A&S night on Wednesday, Oct 7, 6:00 to 8:00, at Sine's house.
- 2) Crois Brigitte's business meetings are changing from the 1st Wednesday of the month to the last Wednesday of the month. The next meeting will be October 28th at 6:30 pm. Need to confirm location at St. Timothy's.

Salesberie Glenn – Sir Axel of Taavistia

Still growing. A&S still very popular; Monday night (7:00) at Mean Mug; fingerloop braiding; 10 – 15 per night. Still having fighter practices and are well attending.

Happenings at Elchenburg Castle!!

Submitted by Dubhghall mac Donnchaidh

In an effort to cut through all the rigamarole and second-hand news, Elchenburg Castle, Inc. will now be writing a regular article in this very baronial newsletter to keep our Scadian friends and benefactors informed and involved in the continuing efforts to build the best and coolest SCA site in the Knowne World.

The Phoenix

Newsletter of the Barony of the Sacred Stone
Nov 2015 Volume 29, Issue 11

Our goal with these articles is to keep the Barony and its populace (you) updated on improvements and active with future plans. While this is private land, Elchenburg Castle realizes that it can only adapt in the best ways possible with the help and perspectives of the populace. Our wish and our goal is to have the most awesome mid-sized Scadian retreat in North America. Our mission is to have ready convenience: easy in, easy setup, a beautiful private place to spend time, and easy out. Let's get started!

This article is the first episode of a new adventure. Here you'll find all the news, announcements, and sometimes mullings which happen on a pretty-constant basis at the only SCA-dedicated site (of over 50 acres) outside of Mississippi! Wait, what? The only one? Yes, as far as we could find by press-time, other than the Gulf Wars site in Lumberton, Mississippi, Elchenburg Castle is the only 50+ acre site primarily dedicated to SCA usage. (Some refer to the Gulf Wars site as "King's Arrow Ranch," but the SCA areas are a subset within that title.)

Why dedicate a site to the SCA? Glad you asked, Timmy! First, because the SCA, Inc., isn't allowed to own real estate. (Or vehicles. But other than still having rules tattooed on his brain, Dubhghall is recovering nicely from having served as baronial exchequer, thank you very much.) Second, because the SCA, Inc. is a registered 501(c)3 under the educational organization classification, the SCA is awesome and deserves whatever support it can muster.

Is this column going to blather on and waste my time every month? No! Not only will there be serious questions posed, the answers to which will have impact on future site changes, but this newsletter will also feature breaking news, such as this issue's announcement: Vingolf is open for business! Long story short, on October 28th, 2015, Yadkin County recognized the land known as Elchenburg Castle as a farm, and confirmed that North Carolina General Statute 143-138 applies: All structures on said farm are farm buildings, and as such are exempt from building code rules, and the code explicitly states that such buildings can be used (at times) for non-farm purposes such as weddings, meals, etc. Uh-oh, does this mean safety will be ignored? Absolutely not! The SCA, Inc. and Elchenburg Castle, Inc., each benefit from safety. (Once upon a time a phoenix was born, but thankfully that's ancient history.)

What else happened during October? Other than War of the Wings, you mean? Well, old wrap-ups and new instigations. Herrin Gisela (as War of the Wings X autocrat) is graciously gathering the data (number of hotel rooms/nights and "daily site attendance") needed for the economic impact study, and Lady Elizabeth (as War of the Wings XI autocrat) has been involved in the installing of some permanent road markings. Serious question posed: Should Elchenburg Castle, Inc. permit the construction of permanent structures, such as is permitted at the site of Gulf Wars?

Thanks All! Please feel free to quote this article in its entirety, but also please cite its source: The Sacred Stone Baronial Newsletter.

If you have any suggestions, questions, issues, etc. that you'd like for Dubhghall mac Donnchaidh (and his team, Lady Suzy, Mistress Meadhbh, and Syr Malcolm) to address, please feel free to write them at profstewart@gmail.com. Any and all factual errors and mistakes are the sole responsibility of Dubhghall. If you'd like to find Elchenburg Castle online, head to "ElchenburgCastle.com." If you'd like to find Elchenburg Castle in-person, set your gpa device to "North Carolina," then "Boonville," then "Elchenburg Castle."

Minister of Arts and Science Report (Lady Annice Argent)

Arts and Sciences in the Barony are going strong. Middlegate continues to have it's A&S Nights on Tuesdays at Geeksboro, and recently, Salisbury Glen has started up A&S Nights! They hold theirs on Mondays at Mean Mug. Unfortunately I do not have the address at the moment, but I am sure any lovely Salisbury Glen denizen would be happy to give you the information.

WoW is next week! There are many wonderful competitions coming up and it is my hope that the populace will come out and support their barony. Show the Kingdom how wonderful and talented Sacred Stone is! WoW also gives us a wonderful chance to take classes and learn. I hope that the populace will take advantage of these classes and learn.

I know in previous reports I promised to hold classes over the summer and before WoW. Unfortunately these did not come to fruition. That was completely my fault. I had a major attack of life and was unable to dedicate the time to scheduling classes and finding teachers. Going forward, I would like to encourage anyone who has an idea for a class they would like to hold to please contact me at jrargent@uncg.edu. I would love to help you schedule a class to share your knowledge with the rest of the people in our fine barony. We are an educational organization, so I always jump at the chance to emphasize learning! Here is to a fantastic and fun WoW!

Yours in service
Argent

Chatelaine's Report (Baroness Caitlin MacDonaughue)

Quarterly report for the Chatelaine's office has been filed. Mistress Molly has a contest going between the Chatelaines of the North and of the South to see who can get their reports in on time first. The winning side will share a big bag of chocolate at WoW.

This month has been all about getting ready for War of the Wings. Sacred Stone will be providing the pavilion, banners and loaner garb for the event. We are asking that each canton Chatelaine donate a couple of hours in the Newcomer's pavilion to assist the Regional Chatelaine.

As cold weather approaches one thing we are in need of is warm clothes and outer garments such as cloaks for newcomers. If you have something you can donate or would like to make for our Gold Key, that would be one thing we really need.

And remember with all the new folks that will be attending War of the Wings that each of us are Chatelaines. We have an opportunity to make a good or a bad impression on newcomers whether we realize we are doing it or not. So stop and take a minute when you see someone who looks lost or alone and make them feel like someone cares. We want them to leave WoW, and any other event in Sacred Stone, thinking that this is the warmest and most welcoming barony they have ever seen.

Chancellor of Youth Report (Lady Thamira ha Sopheret)

We did youth at Baronial Birthday.

Chronicler's Report (Lady Annora Hall)

Many thanks go to our contributors. Their efforts make our newsletter a better reflection of our populace. We have a new series of articles called Baronial Recognitions submitted by Lady Ealasaid MacDonald. Look here for the latest news on what has passed the College of Heraldry. There are pictures of the happenings of our fine Barony. Notice the missing faces - most are because you do not have a waiver on file. Last, there is an article in this month's newsletter explaining the waivers and how to find them. Contributors are always welcome.

Webminister's Report (Lord Lofrikr)

Work has begun on the new website. Wordpress was selected as the platform for the new site.

One of the primary areas we are working on is calendar system that reflects not only Barony events and activities, but also events and activities hosted by the Cantons as well. I am looking for volunteers to help make sure we get all of the Canton activities reflected on the calendar. Additionally, we are looking at importing event data from the new Kingdom RSS feed.

Another added benefit of the Wordpress platform is the ability more easily set up pages for interest groups within the Barony.

Lastly, as we put effort into getting the new site ready to go live, expect to see minimal changes to the current site. Newsletter publications will, of course, continue. We will absolutely continue to update and correct any erroneous information as we find it. Additionally, links to upcoming events will continue to be kept updated from the main page.

If you have any suggestions or new spiffy ideas for the site, please continue to send them to me. We may just have to wait a bit to implement them when the new site goes live.

Thanks, Lord Lofrikr, Webminister.

Old Business

University was a huge success. We had 262 people attending. Last outdoor event in Windmasters was 100 attendees less. The Chancellor was very pleased. Many thanks to all who helped set-up and tear down.

Thank you for all who came to the storage unit to help load it. Tal and Bumba have been here all weekend working on road layout. 1072 actual registrations (plus ~40 ghosts – folks just buying extra land), this is higher than previous years. We are expecting between 200 – 250 walk-ins. Layouts are coming together. Walls, pavilions, and other lovelies will go up today. If you have time, please lend a hand this afternoon. If you want to set-up your tent please check with Tal before pitching.

We will also need help closing down the site on Sunday and returning stuff to storage.
Saturday night Baronial Court. 1 hour after the end of Kingdom Court. In Baronial Court.
