From the Baron and Baroness

To the noble populace of Sacred Stone do we, Marc and Alianor, send good wishes.

Another month has quickly passed by. Amazing how it can overtake us when there is so much to do. As we all are busy preparing for Pennsic and a very busy fall schedule, we wanted to take a moment to thank the countless gentles who have been volunteering time and talents to help us through our first few busy months, and into what is to follow in the upcoming ones. We greatly appreciate you all. Daily we are reminded why we feel affection for this Barony as we do, and are proud to say we are from Sacred Stone.

When this is posted many will have already left to claim lands for base camps during the brewing conflict to the north. We will be leaving on the 11th and will not have access to modern forms of communication until the 20th. For those who will be at Pennsic, Sacred Stone will be camping on block NO7, in-between Wainwright and Fletcher and across Wainwright from Atlantian Royal. Camp will be open between the hours of 11 am and 6 pm; and Baronial court will take place on Tuesday evening at 7:30. By the graciousness of Their Highnesses, Ragnarr and Anneke, we will be holding court in Atlantian Royal. Directly following will be a Luau/Meet-n-Greet in the Baronial encampment. We hope all will be able to stop by and say hello.

There is much excitement going on, as we ramp up to the continuation of a busy event season. After Pennsic will be Flight of the Falcon. Remember what it was like to be new? Remember when everything was unknown, and the joys of learning the things now taken for granted? Come share your experience, your talents and most of all your time with the newcomers to our Society.

Sacred Stone is thrilled to be hosting the Coronation of Ragnarr and Anneke the weekend of September 1st through 4th. There are many activities in the works to please everyone. We encourage all to come out to see this wonderful new site, and hold witness to one of the most glorious aspects of this life we lead.

The weekend of September 8th will see Sacred Stone celebrating the occasion of Her Baronial Birthday. With all that is planned it is looking to be a day to excite one and all. There will be all the fighting forms (Both adult and youth), archery, and A&S displays, competitions and possibly even some classes. It will be a full day for everyone.

At this time we wish to encourage one and all to participate in the competitions as we choose the next Baronial Champions. This is a splendid way to show your support of your Barony, showcase your talents and serve as an example for those who may be new to our Baronial family, or the Society as a whole.

The Champions to be chosen are as follows: Heavy, Rapier, Archery, Arts & Sciences, Bardic, Brewing, Baking, Scribal, Youth Combatant, Youth Archery, and Youth Arts & Sciences. We know the talents of the members of Sacred Stone and hope to see many of you vying for a position as a Champion. Please see the next flyer for more specifics on the Champions competitions.

Lastly, we once again ask that you send us your award recommendations. We know that there are many good people in Sacred Stone, and we need you to make us aware of those deserving recognition. Don't presume that someone else may have already sent one in. Numerous recommendations are a great thing. Recommend now. Recommend often.

We hope that you all are having a wonderful safe summer and look forward to seeing many of you at Pennsic.

In service to Sacred Stone and Atlantia,
We remain,

Marc and Alianor
Baron et Baronne, Barony of the Sacred Stone

From the Castellan

I would like to get as many volunteers to assist me at New Comer's Point. This should only be for about 2 hours at an event. I will have garb there. The job is simple. Assist New comers as best as you can at the events.

Thanks,

Achbar

From the Chronicler

Greetings all,

In October I will be stepping down as Baronial Chronicler. I have greatly enjoyed my last two years as chronicler, but as school and real life invades, I find my time is a fleeting thing and wish to pass on the position to someone who will be able to devote more time to putting out a quality newsletter. It is a fairly easy job and does not require much technical skill. If anyone is interested or would just like to know more about what the job entails, please feel free to contact me at chronicler@sacredstone.atlantia.sca.org.

Before I step down, I am trying to put together a directory of the barony's citizens that would include names, email addresses and phone numbers. The directory would not be published online, but instead would be distributed in paper format at baronial meetings to anyone who wishes a copy. If you would like to be included in the directory please email me with your information.

Always in service to the Arts,
Katerina

From the Warlord

The Baron has a goal. We need a force of 20 spears and a dozen shield men to make a Baronial Force. I have authorized spear to make this goal feasible. Now, it is a matter of practice and encouraging others in the Barony to fill in the ranks. We worked on some spear drills after wastelands.

If you already fight spear... please let the Baron and the Warlord know. We need to start working on more spear drills. Wastelands was a good start to what I hope to see as the Norm of our baronial fighter practices.

Achbar

Barony of the Sacred Stone

Regular Member's Meeting

The Sacred Stone Baronial Meeting for the Month of July was held at Town Creek Park in Salisbury on July 23, 2006. In attendance were Their Excellencies Marc and Alianor, Baronial Seneschal Robear, Mistress Jessamyn, Baron Achbar, Miriel, Muireann, Sara of Hindscroft, Aelfwyn, William of Hindscroft, Mari and Gisela.

Like a blessing from the Heavens, the rain ceased about 1 pm and the meeting commenced about ten minutes later called to order by Robear who pointed out the list of events taking place in the late summer and early fall within the barony's borders. He noted that the populace of Sacred Stone were both industrious and would likely be very busy until after War of the Wings but that he was very glad to have the activities in this region.

Knights Marshal, Rapier Marshal, Minister of Arts and Sciences, Mistress of the Lists and Youth Combat Marshal sent no reports.

Archery Marshal – Miriel reports that Storm is in charge of archery for Flight of the Falcon and Coronation. Things are progressing well for these events. He also stands ready to assist with other events in the region.

Chronicler – Katerina was out of town. There was no report but meeting notes were taken by Gisela.

Chatelaine – Achbar reported that recent conversations have brought home the fact that Newcomers' Points are very important and he is committed to ensuring they are set up and stocked with Gold Key items at every event possible. To this end he states that he has garb for ladies of about Oddney's cut as she graciously donated quite a bit of her excess garb for newcomers' use. Achbar asks for donations of Tunics for both men and women of various sizes that can be used to make new folks feel a part of any event's activities.

Baron Marc agreed and stated, "Everyone has garb they don't wear anymore. It's a great idea to have a tote with a couple of tunics and belts for people to use."

Web Minister – Robear reported that Bonnie has sent updates for Coronation and expects to have the site updated weekly.

Canton Reports followed.

Aire Faucon sent no report.

Baelfire Dunn – Azza sent a report to Robear which he relayed. Azza is stepping down as seneschal at the group's September meeting when Godfrid will take the office. Bridget will assume the duties of A&S Minister at that meeting as well.

Charlesbury Crossing – Robear reported he is set to autocrat Kingdom 12th Night with Mistress Jessamyn as co-autocrat . . . which fact he informed her of at that moment. Achbar volunteered to assist in any way possible.

Miriel reported that she's worked out a cooperative A&S effort with Aire Faucon. The groups meet at Mistress Jessamyn's home on the third Wednesday of each month for a variety of A&S projects. Anyone is welcome to attend these gatherings and should contact Jessamyn or Miriel for information.

Crois Brigitte – Gisela reported things are on track for Sacred Stone Baronial Birthday. The group intends to host Fools' Twelfth Night in January at St. Timothy's Episcopal Church in Winston-Salem. Also the group intends to bid for a Kingdom University in the Winter or Spring.

Also the paperwork to expand the canton's borders to include Davie, Surry, Wilkes and Yadkin counties has been filed and seems to be moving through the system. Robear reiterated that the barony stands poised to support this growth in whatever way it may.

Hindscroft – Sara reported several people have expressed interest in filling vacant offices recently. She then deferred to Aelfwyn, the group's exchequer, who reported that Wastelands made a profit of $739. Robear congratulated the group for a successful event. Because we are a barony, he said, it is good and right that folks from different groups come together to support each others' events. Wastelands was a good example of this.

Muireann reported the group has two potential demos coming up and will post the information when it is set so others can help if possible.

Salisbury Glenn – Mari reported the Dessert and Dance Revel went very well, a point others present agreed heartily with. The group would like to host another such event, perhaps before Christmas and expand the Dessert aspect to include finger foods as well since people seemed to be ‘desserted out’ by the end of the event.

Mari will also be autocratting All For One in the spring. Further, she reported the group’s demo went very well.

Robear, referring to her comment about another DDR before Christmas, agreed this would be a nice thing . . . expanding on that, Alianor and he both said a baronial holiday gathering for fun would be desirable, which all at the meeting agreed to.

Old Business:

SSBB - Gisela reported that preparations for baronial birthday are moving along well. Money to provide the required insurance for equestrian activities at both SSBB and War of the Wings has been requested. Gise asked about receiving front money for the event and will send an e-mail to Robear and Lidia to make a proper request.

Robear emphasized the importance that all reservation money received for baronial events be deposited within 10 days.

He also made an announcement that Mistress Benefse will conduct a class for exchequers at Coronation. He plans to take this class and encourages all canton seneschals and exchequers to take advantage of it, as well.

Coronation – Robear reports plans for Coronation are “putting right along.” He requested that anyone able to come to the site on Monday for clean up, please do. Clean up is very understaffed, he said.

Flight of the Falcon – Robear stated, and many at the meeting agreed, that this event is a very good event for newcomers to be brought to.

New Business:

Gisela asked if the barony would be interested in hosting the Known World Heraldic and Scribal Symposium 2008. She and Rozsa have agreed to work as co-autocrats for the event which is chosen based on a competitive bid process. Laurel Queen of Arms and her Co llege of Arms decide between submitted bids. It was agreed that the barony would support the preparation of a bid for this event which would be subject to the Event Financial Committee before being submitted.

Marc took this opportunity to mention that the Baronial archives of scroll blanks is running dangerously low. He asked that any scribes interested in helping to replenish it, please do so.

Alianor reported that a friend of hers from Windmaster's Hill is willing to come to Sacred Stone to help in creating a Scribal Guild after Pennsic. Any scribes interested in participating or who want more information should contact Her Excellency after war.

Next Meeting – Since many people are engaged in getting ready for Pennsic, Flight of the Falcon, Coronation and Baronial Birthday, it was decided the next Baronial Meeting will be held on Sunday, Sept. 10 at the Elchenburg Castle site after Baronial Birthday.

Respectfully composed and offered by Gisela vom Kreuzbach who is solely responsible for any errors and would appreciate correction.

War of the Wings

Archivist's Note: Many are the historians who would claim that the Kittyhawk and the Phoenix have known naught but war over the last several decades. This poem disputes that idea and, in fact, offers a warning about what to look out for when the two great Titans become . . . less than enemies! It is one of the only great works to mention in print the name of the offspring of the two. . . the dreaded Flamenpuss!

-Jonas Doeus, Scribe.

Twas dawn upon the Elken Plain
When ancient elder said to me
Go not ye east, for only pain
And death are there for thee.

Beware the Kittyhawk, he swore
The jaws that bite, the claws that rend
Beware the airborne hairball, for
It signifies your end.

Twas Midday on the Elken field
When I was told by ancient sire
Go not ye west, for naught can shield
Your body from the fire

Beware the phoenix flame, my son
The heat that burns, the claws that snare
Beware the Barbecue and shun
The ashes in your hair.

Twat twilight on the Elken fyrd
When from the east came padded feet
And from the west came flaming bird
Both were mad; both in heat

Beware when mythic beasts seduce
The flailing tails; the pumping legs
Beware of what can be produced;
Fuzzy fire-colored eggs

Twat midnight on the Elken heath
When egg did crack and beast drew breath
With nasty, mean, sharp pointy teeth
And flaming claws of death

Beware the flamenpuss and hide
When see ye flame or hear ye squawks
Beware that you don't end inside
A flamin' litter box

University Credits for upcoming A&S Classes

Sacred Stone's Baronial Birthday

September 8-10, Booneville, NC

A complete slate of interesting, participatory classes...

12 – 1:00 p.m.

Soapmaking 101 - Lady Aelfwyn Elswith

This class is for all first time soap makers. Afraid of lye? This is the class for you. There will be a discussion of how to make soap in the traditional manner, precautions, where to find supplies, property of oils, what to do if your batch 'goes bad'. You'll be making soap before the week is out.

Narrow Warp-Faced Tabby Weaving (Inkles) - Lady Annora Hall

Come do the tabby warp with me. Beginners or experienced, all are welcome. I will review warping your loom, simple patterns, and the history of narrow warp-faced weaving. A few loaner looms will be provided for true novices. Please bring you looms and heddles for a faster start. Auditors are welcome.

A Bliaut, a 12th Century Garment for both Men and Women - Lady THLady Louise de la Mare

We will examine contemporary images and look at one theory of construction for this enigmatic garment.

1:15 – 2:15 p.m.

Making Beer Through History - THLord Declan Mac Dockery

This class will focus on the style origins and changes through the time of 1000-1600, focusing primarily on Europe. We'll discuss a big north-south divide in ingredients (influenced by climate); and then look at the development of lagering, noting the later emergence of the altbier style, another large dividing line in medieval brewing.

The Dummie's Guide to Competitions - Mistress Jessamyn de Piemonte, OL

Organizing, judging, and entering competitions (including writing Your Documentation)

How to Beautify your Camp with Banners – Baroness Sine ni Dheaghaidh

How to construct banners the quick and easy way for that medieval atmosphere. Complete with examples and a handout.

2:30-3:30 p.m.

Hand Spinning Techniques - THLady Lidia de Ragusa, Spider, (Company of the Silver Spindle)

The basic building block of most textiles is spun fibers. Learn the basic techniques for creating yarn from wool using a drop spindle. Fiber preparation and finishing will also be discussed. (Kits that include a drop spindle and fiber will be available for $7, or bring your own spindle and fiber and we'll get you started!)

Pick-up Techniques for Tabby Weaving - Lady Annora Hall

Who said tabby weaving is boring??? Learn the basics of pick-up. All skill levels are welcome. Some experience with narrow warp-face weaving will enable you to get more out of the class. I will review simple patterns taken from the Manesse Codex, history of pick-up, and creating your own patterns. Auditors are welcome.

War of the Wings I

October 20-22, Booneville, NC

In addition to many, many A&S competitions (more on those elsewhere in this issue), we will be having these (and other) classes in the afternoon, during judging. Be sure to sign up on the class roster to receive your credit....

Tudor England – THLady Kate Rous

Life in a Mongol Ger – Mistress Fuiltigherne ni Ruadh O'Finn, OL

12th Century France – THLord Olivier de Bayonne

11-13th Century England (Norman Invasion) – Master Efenwealt Whystle, OL

Please contact me if you have any questions about any of these classes at NeedleznPinz@Charter.net

Tricks of the Trade

Every good archer has a few tricks of the trade they use to improve their ability to hit what they aim at. I'm going to share a few of my favorites here.

In the SCA we typically shoot at known distances - 20, 30, 40 yards. While the rules state that we can not use sights they do not rule out range marks. Range marks are simply marks on your upper limb for the set distances. To get your range marks, get a very small piece of tape and put it on your upper bow limb. Shoot some arrows at a target 20 yards out. The objective is to have the tape spot horizontal to the target center. If your arrows go left or right, don't worry about it now. The objective is to set the spot on the bow limb such that if the bow is held with the mark horizontal to the target center and you release, your arrow hits on the horizontal line of target center. Now move out to 30 and 40 yards and repeat. Realize that these marks will be accurate for the day you set them. Wet, humid, cold, hot days the air density changes and the range marks will change. But now you have a starting point. Sight down the arrow, line up the horizontal range mark, release, score 5 points. At least that's the concept!

The next trick is to mark your best arrows. First number all your arrows. Then shoot them at the target aiming at the target center. Do not correct your technique if the arrows don't hit center. Chart where each arrow hits. Repeat until you have shot each arrow about 10 - 15 times. You will begin to see a pattern. Some arrows go high, some low, some left, some right. I put a black ring just ahead of the nock on the arrows that most consistently hit target center. Hopefully out of a dozen arrows you'll get six that are accurate. Use these six for scored rounds.

One of my favorite archery exercises is shooting at unknown distances. I use a Styrofoam block about 8 inches square. I start with the block at 20 yards. The objective is to put four arrows in the block (more than four and I start splitting arrows). The beauty here is only the first shot is at a known distance. After you hit the block it flies back to some unknown distance.

Stumping is when you walk through an area with a friend. Each of you see something then challenge the other to hit it, leaf, branch, trash, whatever. It's best to arm yourself with arrows fixed with blunt tips and painted a very bright color so they are easier to find.

There are two things that are challenging in speed rounds, getting the arrow on the string and coming to aim quickly. I practice the coming to aim part by putting the arrow on the string, hold the bow down, draw hand fingers in the grip position. Taking my time, I then concentrate on the target and in one smooth, quick movement, raise the bow, draw and release. Getting the arrow on the string quickly takes practice. You should be able to do it without looking, I can't just yet. However, I also see archers on the line holding the arrow in the middle of the shaft, trying to nock the thing. Please! Grab the arrow by the nock, then your fingers will guide the arrow onto the string. It makes little difference if the cock vane is away from the bow or on the bow side. Feathers compress nicely and result in little kick of the arrow. It's better to get an extra arrow or two off scoring a point or five than one less arrow. I prefer a side or ground quiver for speed rounds so I can grab the arrows by the nock. If I'm using a back style quiver I just grab the fletches and nock the arrow.
