Letter from their Excellencies

Unto the populace of the fairest of Atlantia's Baronies, do we, Simone and Murienne, send greetings.

First, we want to thank you all for your support and well wishes at Baronial Birthday. The staff put on a lovely event in spite of some challenges and we heard many people sharing their wonderful memories of "the old days" all weekend. We were extremely thrilled to see the Crown recognize three very worthy phoenixes, Lord (now Sir) Christian Thomas of York, Lady (now Mistress) Annora Hall and Lord (now Master) Ghaltai Jida (aka Phillip Bell) as the peers we know them to be.

As we begin our tenure we are excited for upcoming events and gatherings where we hope to represent our beloved Barony and where the populace can create new memories together.

In just a few weeks we will all be together at War of the Wings. Lady Dorothea and Master Talorgen are hard at work organizing the baronial camp. Lord Brian has graciously offered to run the meal plan. The plans are coming together and we are looking forward to the event.

We hope that you all will join us on Friday evening for a potluck dinner followed by Baronial court. Then on Saturday we ask that you wear your green (not required) and join the Barony for procession as we declare the night, beauty, and persistence of Sacred Stone for the west!

Last but certainly not least. Talk to us! Have you seen someone doing amazing things in your group? Tell us! Do you have a great idea but don't know how to make it a reality? Share it with us! Do you have a worry, a concern, a comment about the barony? Let us know! We can't promise that we can always fix things, but we can't help if we don't know. We are all in this together. You will likely get tired of us saying it but it is true... when one Phoenix rises, we all soar.

With great affection,
Baron Simone and Baroness Murienne

Letter from Chronicler

Greetings again to the populace of the most amazing Barony in the Known World. I once again address you as a Chronicler - I'm filling in this month as our new Chronicler and I complete the transition to the office within the next week or two.

This month's edition is dedicated to the hard work you and others have made putting together War of Wings XII. As mentioned in last month's letter from their excellencies, "Sacred Stone will be part of the western army. We will meet the eastern army on the combat field, the ranges, and in the artist village." Those fields and ranges have changed a bit as we make space for over 1200 preregistered guests attending this year's war. Our event website (<http://warofthewings.com/>), managed by Lord Ihone Munro, includes maps of the site, descriptions of activities, and schedules of the coming conflicts and entertainments. I hope you will find this edition useful in your preparation for this noble battle.

In service - Haelfdige (hail-dee-ga) Annora

War is Coming!!!

What makes War of the Wings different from your average weekend event? Take your favorite parts of our SCA game: is it our marshalled arts, pageantry, classes, spectacle, merchants, socializing, or service? This event gives you not just one day of activities but 3 - 4 days of your favorite parts. There are some trade-offs - you have to camp in a field with roughly 1400 of your closest re-enactors; you learn a new appreciation to flush toilets, your meals are cooked over a fire or straight from the cooler.

Let me tempt you further with more details about activities for both adults and youth alike at War of the Wings. We'll start with our marshalled activities which include heavy and rapier melee and tournament formats, equestrian, siege, thrown weapons, and archery. We are gathering volunteers and supporters to manage the water bearing, safety, health, master of lists, and information of the war's activities. Without these good gentles our wars would be short-lived and austere. Our war would not be complete without our pageantry on display whether in procession, heraldic words or displays, courts, and competitions. If your favored activities lean toward the "gentler" arts and sciences there are all day immersion classes (leather working, blacksmithing, brewing, middle eastern culture (Madrassa), fiber preparation, fiber arts, scribal arts, period gaming, and cooking). Also on the schedule are university style classes for both A&S and service alike: basket making, MOL training, Silent Herald roundtable, hot buttered rum and spice mulled beverages, and the list goes on. Performing arts, welcome social, live music, and dancing (formal ball) will be holding sway on our attention in the early evening hours. Social gatherings, more live music, and dancing (tribal and belly) at various camps will try to tempt us to stay up late and forget about the early muster where we get to do it all - all over again. Let us not forget to greet our newcomers and bid them welcome as they are the life-blood of our organization. If you forget something, there will be over thirty merchants on-site that may be able to fill the gap in your packing or your belly or perhaps create a gap in your pouch from their fine offerings. As you can see, those who claim to be bored at war have failed to take advantage of the multitude of activities offered by our staff and volunteers.

This is a war between friends - not enemies. But even with friendly competitions there needs to be a winner decided. Our fine Barony of the Sacred Stone and her allies make up the Blue (West) team. We will face off against the White (East) team. War points split between the various activities throughout the entire event will help decide which team / side is victorious. Here are the proposed 25 war points:

- Armored - 5 War Points
- Rapier - 5 War Points
- Combat Archery/Siege - 1 War Point
- Youth Combat - 1 War Point

Newsletter of the Barony of the Sacred Stone
October, 2017 Volume 31, Issue 10

- Equestrian - 3 War Points
- Archery - 2 War Points
- Youth Archery - 1 War Point
- Thrown Weapons - 1 War Point
- Bardic A&S - 1 War Point
- Heraldic Procession - 1 War Point
- Heraldic Presence - 1 War Point

There are a number of ways you can make your War of the Wings experience a smooth one. Here are some suggestions to help you with your plan.

- (1) Build a packing list (don't forget your heraldry)
- (2) If you use an MOL in your marshalled arts, consider signing up early: available through October 14th, please click here!
- (3) Volunteer - forms will be added to the Event's Facebook and web pages soon.
- (4) Sign-up for classes in the Cultural (A&S) Village: Click here to register now.
- (5) Participate in competitions - some require registration like our Third Annual Medieval Science Fair: Click here to sign up!
- (6) Have fun and get involved!

If you are on the fence about attending War of the Wings, we hope you can find time in your schedule to check us out. If you are already registered with a camp, well met! I hope we will see you on the fields, by the fields, in merchants, in the village, in camp, at gatherings, at performances, each and every day of war.

Tournament at Elchenburg Castle

November 10-12, 2017

Hosted by the Canton of Charlesbury Crossing

<https://tourneyatelchenburg.wordpress.com/>

It is Charlesbury Crossing's privilege... nay, our PLEASURE to tell you of a tournament the likes of which has never before been seen in the Kingdom of Atlantia! Join us on the feast day of Saint Leo the Great for a Grand Tournament that will pit tourney companies against tourney companies.

- ⇒ Archers! Practice your aim, for your accuracy will determine the fate of your team in the lists.
- ⇒ Heralds! Your words will carry loud and far crying the virtues of your company!
- ⇒ Squires, Knights, Men-at-Arms! Polish your armor and prepare to meet your fellows on the field.
- ⇒ Cavalry! The skillful partnership of horse and rider will be on display for all to see!

Will your tourney company take the day and prove to be the Seekers of Serenity, Protectors of Elchenburg Virginity, and the Enforcers of our Sovereign King?!

The Members of Cavalry are invited to form their own tournament companies (consisting of 1 rider, 1 herald, 1 archer, & 2 armored combatants) under the arms of their choice and/or creation to compete in the Grand Tournament on Saturday. The tournament will begin with an Archery Tournament, followed by an Armored Melee, then completed by the Cavalry Challenge Course. The finale of the tournament will be a singles Jousting Tournament for all those authorized.

All activities will happen where the attendees can watch and enjoy the prowess of the competitors from the comfort of the Ladies' Gallery or their personal pavilions. Spectators will be judging to determine Best Procession, Best Heraldic Display, and Best Herald of the Day. In addition to the Grand Tournament on Saturday, there will be various A&S Competitions, Children's Activities, including a hobby horse race at the completion of the armored melee!

After the completion of the Tournaments on Saturday the evening will feature a Buffet Feast of Sausage and Sauerkraut, followed by a Bardic Boasting Competition, Songs of Chivalry, and Mulled Cider around a beautiful bonfire.

Arriving on Friday? We will entertain you Friday afternoon and evening with A&S activities, field games, a torchlight armored Cheapside Tournament, and a Pre-Tournament Ball surrounded by the arms of the Tournament Companies. |

8. Baronial Equipment

8.1 A deputy position to the Exchequer (the Quartermaster) is established to oversee the control of all property owned by the Barony.

8.2 The Quartermaster duties are: conducting a complete physical inventory of all property belonging to the Barony of the Sacred Stone annually; maintaining a copy of the inventory; providing a copy to the Exchequer and Webminister for publication on the Baronial website; facilitating the borrowing and return of Baronial property; and informing the Baronial Financial Committee when items need repair or replacement. Quartermaster duties do not include the lifting and/or loading of Baronial property when it is borrowed or returned, nor the general maintenance of the property and repair of damaged property.

8.3 Baronial Property may only be borrowed for uses which are in line with the purposes of the SCA. If the property is being borrowed for a purpose outside of an official SCA, Inc. event, such as a demo or commons, the Seneschal, Exchequer, and Quartermaster must all give their approval for any such request.

8.4 At their discretion, the Seneschal, Exchequer, or Quartermaster may specify conditions of use, such as having a trusted contact person in charge of setup and teardown of equipment.

8.5 There shall be, at any given time, at least two and no more than four keys to the Baronial storage unit. The Quartermaster and either the Exchequer or Seneschal shall have one key each. The other two keys may be distributed at the discretion of the Quartermaster.

8.6 Borrowing Baronial Property Procedures

8.6.1 Any individual/SCA, Inc. branch borrowing Baronial property is responsible for requesting the use of the Baronial Equipment from the Quartermaster, arranging for the pickup and return of the equipment to the Baronial shed in an orderly fashion, any necessary cleaning of the equipment after use, and notifying the Exchequer of any damage or loss to the Equipment.

8.6.2 Requests to borrow Baronial Property must be submitted at least 10 days in advance so arrangements can be made for acquisition of the item(s). The Quartermaster must be contacted via the Quartermaster's official email address as listed on the Baronial Website and/or Newsletter and NOT Facebook or other social media.

8.6.3 All Baronial property borrowed must be returned within 14 days after its intended use. Any SCA, Inc. branch or individual who does not return the property within the time allotted may not borrow any additional items until the property is returned, assessed for damages, and any appropriate reparations have occurred.

8.6.4 Items being returned to storage after use should be clean, dry, and packed to avoid breakage, for example tents, coolers, and dishes.

8.7 Damage to Baronial Property

8.7.1 Any individual/SCA, Inc. branch borrowing the Baronial equipment is responsible for reporting any damage and is financially responsible for undue wear and tear and damages. Any individual/SCA, Inc. borrowing Baronial equipment must be informed of this policy before borrowing the equipment and must sign a form to acknowledge awareness of this policy and listing the property being borrowed.

8.7.2 Any damage to Baronial property during normal use shall be reported to the Exchequer and Quartermaster within 7 days of the incident.

8.7.3 Any borrowed Baronial property lost or damaged due to misuse or neglect will be replaced by the individual/SCA, Inc. branch and at their cost, within a negotiated time frame set by the Seneschal, Exchequer, and Quartermaster. The individual, including those whom they reside with, and/or the SCA, Inc. branch may not borrow additional items until reparations have occurred.

8.8 Durable goods and non-perishable supplies or expensed items purchased for use at Events are to be returned to the Quartermaster to be included in the Baronial Inventory. The Autocrat is responsible for transporting these items to the Baronial Shed and providing a list of these items to the Quartermaster within fourteen (14) days of the event.

8.9 The Quartermaster may destroy or dispose of any expensed items that cannot be stored in the unit without spoilage, attracting vermin, or causing damage to other items at his/her discretion.

8.10 The Quartermaster may destroy or dispose of any Baronial property/regalia that has been deemed to be destroyed or irreparable by the Quartermaster, Exchequer, Seneschal, and Baronage. .

8.11 The Quartermaster will report to the Exchequer any items not returned within the allotted time, as well as any items discarded or damaged after use.

8.12 Special Use Baronial Property

8.12.1 Gold Key. Gold Key and related storage tubs, though considered Baronial property, shall be stored and maintained by the appropriate officers, such as Chatelaine taking care of clothing and the Marshallate maintaining armor. Because of the high turnaround of borrowing, loss, and damage, these items are not to be included in the Quartermaster's inventory duties. The items are to be turned over to the Quartermaster within a month of the officer stepping down so the materials may be passed on in an orderly fashion.

8.12.2 Officer Regalia and materials. No later than a month after an officer stepping down, preferably at the business meeting before they step down, the materials related to the office shall be turned over to the Quartermaster for review and he/she shall update the inventory appropriately. After which the Quartermaster shall have the gentle stepping into the office sign for the office's materials and then turn over the items.

8.12.3 Baronage Regalia. At the Quartermaster's discretion and with the Seneschal and Exchequer's approval, items from regalia, such as the baronial seats, kneeling cushion, and ceremonial sword, may be signed out and stored at the home of the Baronage or with a person they designate due to constant travel and usage. The Quartermaster should verify the status and location of the items during the annual inventory and visually inspect the items when possible at events for maintenance and repair needs. The individual storing a regalia item must sign the acknowledgement of policy and listing the property being borrowed from. All items borrowed in such a manner shall be returned to the Quartermaster no later than the day the Baronage's term ends.

8.12.3.1 It is recommended that the coronets be stored at the home of the Baronage and covered by their homeowners or renters insurance by establishing an annual rent of the coronets of $1 per term.

8.12.4 Champion Regalia. In a manner similar to Baronage Regalia, Champions may sign out related regalia for the duration of their service. Champions shall have the Quartermaster review the items at the event where they are stepping down before the Court where they pass the items on.

8.12.3 Miscellaneous Property. At the Quartermaster's discretion and with the Seneschal and Exchequer's approval, specific miscellaneous Baronial Property such as (but not limited to) propane tanks, may have official storage locations other than the baronial storage shed. Such items will have their locations marked on the inventory page. The Quartermaster should verify the status and location of the items during the annual inventory and visually inspect the items when possible at events for maintenance and repair needs.
