Meeting Minutes

In lieu of a baronial meeting, there was a gathering at Day in The Park.

From Their Excellencies

Phelicitations, Phone Phoenix Phamily!

His Excellency Alain and I were well pleased with the delightfully cozy Charlesbury Crossing event 'A Day in the Park' recently. Fearghus won the 'Choose Your Own Adventure Battle' and Lord Xavier Crystal Keeper, m'lord Eoin de Barri, and m'lord Trian de Barri were rewarded for their continual service with Awards of Courtesy. Honorable Lord Gawain de Barri was presented with a phoenix necklace for raising such excellent young men. Thank you to the staff and attendees of the event for a wonderful day! His Excellency and I were able to solve a grievance brought up in court that resulted in no bloodshed! Sir Gunther and Fearghus resolved their differences with a hug and smiles. We thrilled at meeting m'lady Eiblin's newborn daughter, Alice Ann.

At Hawkwood Baronial Birthday, we witnessed the changing of our daughter barony's leaders. Congratulations to Their Excellencies, Edward and Lucrezia! Baroness Azza attempted to win the bardic filking challenge but lost to the phabulous storyteller, Master Hagar. I print the lyrics I wrote here so you can laugh with me.

To the tune of 'This Land is Your Land':

This lamb is your lamb, this lamb is my lamb.

Not some girl, Mary's we sang in grade school.

From the open meadow to our dinner plates of gold,

This lamb tastes good to you and me.

Lady Pagane won the 'Make Us Laugh' A&S competition. Thanks to Lady Ailis for her tasty largesse - honey from her own hives and to the Canton of Aire Faucon for the much-needed scroll covers! We applaud the three-man armored combat team, 'Hawkstone' for their attempt at the contest. These three hails from Hawkwood and Sacred Stone: Syr Cyriac, Lord John, and Lord Eoin. Thanks to Master Achbar, Honorable Lord Alesander, and Sir Rodney for marshaling. Baroness Azza enjoyed the hospitality of our buddy barony, Nottingham Coill at the rapier field. Your baronage thanks all our wonderful retainers for the event: Ladies Pagane, Slaine, and Cassia, Honorable Lady Niccolina, and Honorable Lords Patris and Gawain.

We wish to reward you for reading this newsletter, so the first ten people who read this will receive a small prize the next time we see you. Limit one per family. Not available for baronial officers. Shhh...don't tell other folks! Contact Baroness Azza to claim your award. Now that we have your attention, please turn in an award recommendation!

At Sacred Stone Baronial Birthday, Labor Day weekend, at Elchenburg, we invite your entries into the Mostest Largesse Contest. That's right - The canton which enters the most largesse wins this contest. Remember paying your canton 'taxes' at Baronial Birthday? The largesse - the work of your generosity and your nimble hands - goes into gift baskets for new royalty and baronage, award recipients, and to folks who deserve recognition for an act of art, chivalry, or service at events.

At the event, all attendees choose which canton to support and all points you earn go towards the Annual Canton Contest. Contests include activities for all ages like a Field Day you had in grade school. Inspiration came from Their Graces Christoph and Adelheit's Coronation several years ago. The winning canton receives the precious Banner of the Cantons and bragging rights for a year. You may want to discuss at your next canton meetings how you will encourage folks to support YOUR canton. Perhaps you could talk up the great works and people of your canton, the noble history of your canton heraldry, and what bribes you are willing to pay...
