Letter from their Excellencies Sacred Stone: Alain and Azza

Unto the populace of the Barony of the Sacred Stone, Greetings!

We have just returned from a visit to our dear cousin's land in Windmasters' Hill, and the tournament of Ymir. The road treated us well, both there and back, as did the weather, one should never take such things for granted when invoking the name of an Ice Giant. Loki's mischief seemed to be focused on the gods, rather than those in attendance, as we have not heard of much trickery. Many great deeds were done, many well deserving people recognized, and great camaraderie shared throughout the day. While we will be remarking on individuals, this will come in a later missive, as this one is calling out another topic.

When their Majesties convened morning court, the hall was full, even as some had yet to arrive. Looking out over those assembled, we could not help but be aware of, first, how many faces we recognized, and second, how genuinely pleased everyone was with each other's company. As court began, there was an almost tangible excitement in the air, and as it progressed, this feeling grew, as it became obvious many of those receiving awards were well respected by those present, we were all well pleased with their Majesties' choices. Put simply, there was a tremendous sense of Joy, and it was pervasive and infectious. We were genuinely happy for those called forth. No matter the place on the Order of Precedence, from Baronial awards through Peerages, accomplishments were celebrated equally by all, and we found ourselves as excited as I'm sure the recipients were, even if we didn't know them well.

This spilled out onto the day following court. Throughout the day, we witnessed much the same, as small accomplishments were called to notice alongside great ones, new challenges were issued with love and respect, new friends made, and old friendships refreshed connections. Truly, it was a day of much happiness, such that it is hard to imagine not smiling at its memory for years to come.

It was also a busy day, we did not stop until late that evening, and did not, could not, do all we wanted to do, see all the wondrous things, or greet all the amazing people we wanted to connect with - there simply were not enough minutes in the day. We saw merchants in passing, en route to other things. To a degree, our lesson, once again, was we can't do it all, no matter how hard we try. If we missed you, please forgive us, and we hope to see you soon.

Which leads here; Everywhere we looked yesterday, people were celebrating each other. From their Excellencies to their Majesties, Peers taking students to households taking members, to people meeting in competition, what stood out most was the care shown to each other. It was inspiring, and reminded us of why these current middle ages are so dear to us.

Thus do we challenge all seeing these words to remember and hold dear; It matters not what Barony you are part of, what Household you frequent, what Order you belong or aspire to, or what group you call home, we are all members of a larger group, and as such can and should celebrate any success we see! While we form other bonds, based on interests, styles, geography and such, it never diminishes your light to rejoice in another's brightness, indeed two flames together enhance each other's illumination. So, if you see a household gathering while passing by, if you can, pause and share their excitement of new members. If you see a Peer gathering others around, give a moment's attention to the magic of a new student taking a belt. In any court, look around for those who are part of the circle of those called in, and share in the pure joy of their accomplishment. While you may not know an individual, you will certainly recognize the joy, and adding to it will never cease to make the world a better place.

For our part, know this; No matter what your path, your house, group, Order, or place on the Order of Precedence, We care. Each and every member of the Barony of Sacred Stone is important to us, and we long to celebrate your successes. You are an amazing community, we are deeply honored to represent you, and struggle to find the proper words to express how pleased we are to see each and every one of you, every chance we get.

Alain & Azza Baron & Baroness, Sacred Stone

Lessons Learned from Ymir 49

My first ever Kingdom-level event took place during the weekend of February 23rd and 24th at Camp Millstone 4-H in Ellerbe, NC. At first, I was nervous because I would be working Troll for the first time ever and did not want to screw things up, but instead there are absolutely wonderful people all across my barony and the kingdom. I was trained by Mistress Jdeke von Kolberg on how to successfully interact with the citizenry of Atlantia and how to check in gentles at the gate! I deeply appreciate the firsthand experience of being an exchequer in practice and how to balance and deposit the cash and checks we received.

I also made good friends with Baroness Lucrezia of Hawkwood, who I spent 4 hours with at the table, and spent time outside just talking. Mistress Adair of Makyswell also joined our lively crew of three on Saturday as we perused the vendors, and I bought my first products at an event. They helped me pick a gold chain to use in conjunction with the lovely exchequer pendant Mistress Jdeke passed onto me and I will treasure it the entire time in office until I too will pass it onto someone worthy. My fantastic Baroness Azza told me about rapier and fencing and how she wished to join a guild and to compete in more events and I admired her for wanting to learn something so physically demanding (especially after dealing with a foot injury from last year).

I caught up with an old friend from a previous event named Lady Annabella of the Bay who inspired me to learn how to provide and create hospitality and to remember to be open-minded to all sorts of recipes people will be sure to enjoy. I also caught up with a friend from Virginia named Baron Cataldo Quirini and his lovely wife and child who were part of the royal entourage, and I asked what that entailed and how does marshalling work. I was blown away by my friend's experience and the fact that people were so welcoming of my service and enthusiasm and willingness to learn that I will forever take that with me as I decide to pursue my own path of service and interests. SCA provides me with the outlet that I have sought for the past five years-one of connection and inner reflection. I hope to blossom into the type of SCAdian that others will be proud to call partner and friend. Godspeed to all my wonderful friends at Ymir and I look forward to seeing you soon at Spring Coronation in Boonville in April!

Sincerely,

Edward Perry

Report on University of Atlantia

Winter/Spring University of Atlantia 2024 was held the first weekend of February and held so many options it was impossible to attend them all! I took entirely all warranted officer courses as I was interested in what the various positions did and how they interacted with other members of canton, baronial, and kingdom regnum. I attended Exchequer 201 and 301 as mandated by my Kingdom Exchequer, Chronicler 101 as needed for my second warrant, and I took Webminister 101 just for the fun of it. I also took a Historical Spanish Wool class and learned about the history of wool and the value of sheep within the Spanish Empire.

Although the Summer Session of the University will take place half in Bright Hills and half online-I would still encourage you to attend if you are interested. You can also teach courses as well but "the deadline for track proposals is midnight on Wednesday, April 3. The deadline for individual class proposals is midnight on Wednesday, April 10. These deadlines occur right around the spring holidays and the IRS tax deadline. Make sure you do not miss them! Note that we ask instructors to limit their class offerings to two hours per day in order to ensure that we can offer all instructors time on the schedule and provide a wide variety of classes."

Once classes have been approved by university staff on April 25th, instructors will have until May 2nd to make any changes. Student registration will begin on May 5th and extend until June 5th. Students who are attending in person can change their courses up until the day of the university. Whereas students taking the online only session will need to pre-register in advance of the June 8th classes. Looking forward to seeing some of you in June at university.

Sincerely, Edward Perry Deputy Baronial Chronicler

Meeting Minutes: February 18, 2024

Barony meeting – February 2/18/24 Location: Chat and Chew in Archdale, NC

Report from the Baronage

We have recovered well from illness We will have a tent at Ymir – please bring things for hospitality. All are welcome under the tent, please be welcome! We will be at Kingdom A&S as well as hope to see you there!

Officer Reports

-Seneschal: I am looking for a deputy! It would be great to have more knowledge and Seneschal that doesn't need to be in the position for multiple years.

-Exchequer: Exchequer Report, Baronial Meeting 2/18/2024.

Balance $29,876.91

Emergency financial committee met via email and voted unanimously to approve the expenditure of $660 for storage

Checks out:

- 1. $225 to Bethel Lutheran for meeting space in February & March, as voted in the last meeting
- 2. $100 to Brittany Lasley to reimburse for meeting space in January, as voted in the last meeting
- 3. $660 to Olympic Storage for storage space per vote of the emergency financial committee

I officially became Exchequer for the Barony as of 2/1/2024. I was sick, so the turnover was slow, but I now have all of the Baronial Exchequer files and am working with First Citizens to gain electronic access to the bank statements. Lord Fedor volunteered to be my drop-dead deputy.

I don't intend to extend further than the 2 years of the warrant. I encourage folks who think they might be interested in the job to become deputies now, and I'll spend time training them throughout those two years. Then, when the call goes out for a replacement, they'll know what the job is all about and can make an educated decision – AND begin the job with some real knowledge of how to do it. They need to be members and take Exchequer 101 to do the job (I can teach it).

Quartermaster. We have a volunteer – need to make sure their warrant is processed. Position does not require Exchequer 101, because it doesn't handle money. It does require paid membership.

-Chronicler: Lady Fyen is putting in her notice of stepping down as Chronicler. We will need letters of intent submitted to Seneschal and Baronage before next meeting (deadline to submit letters of intent is need to be submitted before 3/24/24)

-Chatelaine: Warrant has expired, final report has been filed. We had a letter of intent for Lady Siobhan. She will be accepted pending class and warrant! -Herald: no report. However announcement from Mistress Gisela: there will be online heraldic table upcoming from Master Etienne opening again to learn this process

-Marshal: I will be Ymir. Most cantons have fighter practice ongoing. Salesberie Glenn in particular will restart with daylight savings time change.

-MoAS:

Good news first: university happened and it was awesome. If you took classes you should have received an email for a follow up survey. Please send your feedback and this is due TODAY (2/18/24). Yesterday there was a competition/display workshop in Nottinghill Coill. Our MoAS received the Silver Knot (Nottinghill Coill's award for service in the barony for members not residing in the barony). This was the 2nd highest attended workshop to date (there have been 14 in total). If you have questions about competition/display/etc please reach out to me and I am glad to help! Congrats to our teachers! Upcoming: Ymir: there are a lot of competitions and displays themed around Loki. There should also be classes

KASF – this is located in Tir-y-Don and will also be an investiture. This is March 2nd World Turned Upside Down, Attack of the Killer Rabbits – this is located in Falcon Cree (Spartansburg) - March 23rd

There will also be cool arts and sciences at Hidden Mountain Baronial Birthday upcoming on March 29th in Bennettsville, SC.

There has been arts and sciences at the rapier practices including classes! There is plenty of space, chairs, tables, running water, kitchen, and modern plumbing! All is available to use! This is Thursdays 6:30pm in Claremont, NC. Please find address on baronial FB page or reach out to MOAS for information

I will be looking for a replacement for MoAS as I will be stepping up as the Southern Regional Deputy soon! Date is not yet set - as the warrant is not yet approved. If you are interested and want more information – please reach out to me! Please also send letters of intent to Their Excellencies and Seneschal

-MoL: no report/not present

-Webminister: everything is pretty much status quo. If you have events please send them to me so they can be submitted to the calendar. This lets everyone know what is going on. I will be at Ymir. Also coordinating with Webminister for College of Heralds and I may be taking this job on as well.

There have been some issues with email aliasing, but Dreamhost has updated and hopefully should be working.

Kingdom of Atlantia should be making corporate gmail accounts and moving away from Dreamhost at some point in the future.

Canton Reports

-Aire Faucon: Winter is coming to an end and activities have begun! A+S activities are being scheduled, and a quarterly meeting is upcoming. -Feb 22nd is a pattern drafting class. Feb 2 we hosted a successful gathering of around 40 people for armored training (heavy and rapier) and also the Arts and Sciences.

This was well received and will be repeated in the future. The school continues to welcome us for hosting weekend events, or scheduling gatherings. Our local group was contacted and on February 23rd Will be doing a small demo for an eighth grade honors class as they are finishing studying the Crusades. We no longer have a Canton Knight Martial, but we do have all necessary positions filled to be solvent. Please look for more scheduled events and gatherings -Charlesbury Crossing: We are continuing to meet at Mugs on Friday nights. March 9- gathering to make stools, make cheese, and paint the canton popup – this is a Saturday. Currently no fighter practice, but Master Achbar has been teaching classes on being a marshal. We have requested a demo table at ConCarolina on May 31st in Charlotte.

-Crois Brigte: Crois Brigte had a business meeting in January – did a soup/chili gathering and discussed plans for the future of the canton. Participation was low, but those that attended had good ideas. Plan to meet the Sunday after Ymir.

-Middlegate: Argent is the new Seneschal of Middlegate. We had a business meeting at Chat and Chew a few weeks ago. We have a new official Exchequer (Edward Perry) and MoAS (Ann of Middlegate). We are meeting weekly downtown at Cheesecakes by Alex in Greensboro. 6-8pm (ish) on Wednesdays. We have some ideas for plans for the future – such as restarting the "Of the Stone" events.
